Evening Verse_ (For Your Scrapbook) BY DANIEL I. O'CONNOR George Washington Why should there ever be heroes. Who live in the pages of fame? Why do we strive. To keep mem'ry alive. And tenderly cherish a name? Washington's wisdom and genius Fashioned a happier fate With steadying hand He was first in command Enthroned in a hero's estate. Leaders of Washington's stature Serve as a pattern of life Guiding our days In American ways Thru' happiness, laughter, and strife. "I Tried to Get Rich Quick!"

"In my own business, I base my judgment only on facts- all the facts I can get. Tips, rumors and hunches

"I don't know why I thought the stock market would be different. It's business, too-a cross-section of all business. But, in my dealings there, I tried to take an easy short cut on facts... "I listened to tips...took rumors at face value...

relied on intuition rather than on information. I tried to get rich quick. "See this headgear I'm wearing now? I put it there... no one else is to blame. It's to remind me-'get-richquick' promises are NO substitute for facts."

The man's right!

Precisely the same principles that apply to any successful business activity, apply to dealings in securities.

There is no short cut to wealth . . . no sure, easy way to make money quickly... either on this Exchange or anywhere else.

Tips and rumors—promising great rewards without effort or thought—are merely traps for the unwary, the ill-informed, the heedless.

In investment there is always a degree of risk, whether in stocks, bonds, or any other form of property.

Experienced investors know this. Before they act, they get the facts . . . not to eliminate risk (for it can never be done away with entirely) but to avoid needless risk.

Facts can be had. Every company whose securities are listed on this Exchange has agreed to disclose essential facts needed to form reasoned investment decisions.

True, it takes seeking to get this information. Facts aren't handy as gossip, on every street corner, but they are available ... in the reports of listed companies . . : on the market pages of your newspaper . . . at the offices of member firms of this Exchange.

To aid you in sound investment practices, the New York Stock Exchange offers these Five Points for Investors:

1-Hold your U.S. War Bonds.

Don't let anyone talk you into cashing them for any reinvestment purpose. 2-Buy U. S. Savings Bonds. They are identical with U.S.

War Bonds, and both are the world's best investments. 3-Get the facts about any security you buy. 4-Beware of tips, rumors, impulses, "get-rich-quick" schemes. 5-Unless you can afford to take risks, and unless you will go to the trouble to get facts, you should stay out of the market.

Why a Shortage of Women's Hosiery-

And What YOU Can Do About It

Over half of the women in the United States will not have sufficient stockings during the entire year of 1946. Many will not be able to obtain any. There will only be 54% of the total 1940 hosiery production in 1946.

Why?

DuPonts, sole makers of Nylon yarn, stated recently that only enough yarn to produce 30,000,000 dozen pairs of Nylon stockings will be available for the year

Production in 1945 of women's stockings of all kinds amounted to 43,000,000 dozens, and this quantity fell far short of the demand.

Where Are The Rayon Stockings?

On October 1, 1945, the War Production Board threw out control order M37-D under which rayon yarn was set aside and sold to the manufacturers of women's hosiery. This rayon yarn is now being used for other purposes. The hosiery manufacturers are unable to procure ANY rayon yarn. Consequently, you will get no more rayon stockings. We know you don't like rayon stockings as well as Nylons, but they're certainly far better than nothing.

If You Want Rayon Stockings - -

SMALL BUSINESS!

Valuable information, training, help from successful business men on how to operate a small business of your own for profit! Provided without cost with New York State's Plan for Small Business Expansion—a plan designed to benefit everyone in the State! D^{O} you want the independence of being in business for yourself? Are you in business now, wondering how to expand safely? Would you like to learn just where and how you can operate a particular business most profitably? You can get the answers to these and many more questions—at no expense—under New York State's Small Business Expansion Plan.

Where Real Opportunity Lies

Because a prosperous postwar economy in New York State hinges on small business expansion, the State has set up a Plan to help and encourage many of its returning servicemen and demobilized war workers to go into business for themselves-and to enable its small business now in operation to expand along proved lines.

This plan has the enthusiastic approval and support of outstanding business leaders. The plan includes full information on basic operating practices in small business and proper functioning of various departments of a business, such as financing, insurance, management, public relations, advertising and so on.

NEW YORK MEANS BUSINESS

Aid from Local Business Men

Most important of all, you can receive-in many communities-personal help and advice-freefrom successful men who are familiar with local conditions. All over the State, groups are forming Business Clinics and Business Institutes-where training courses will be conducted and personal advice given free of charge.

Through this Plan, not only will thousands of men and women be helped to start on the road to success in their own business, but all communities will be benefited through the increased prosperity thus brought about. This Plan is just another of the many advantages of doing business in New York State. Start Now!

Find out now how easy it is to benefit by this Plan. Send at once for this booklet outlining the various kinds of help offered you absolutely free under it. Tear out and mail the coupon below now.

LOST OPPORTUNITY

Most Americans, of all parties, have been rather sympathetic with President Truman. They realized that he came into office under circumstances of the greatest difficulty. They believed he was doing the best he could. They were disposed to give him the benefit of the doubt when he seemed to be going wrong.

But he lost his great chance the other day in the Ickes-Pauley matter. Pauley may be intelligent beyond most mortals, he may be pure as the driven snow. But Americans want their Secretary of the Navy to be above suspicion. Especially they do not want him connected with large matters involving oil. So it early became plain that no matter how good Pauley might be, Americans in general did not want him running their Navy. When Truman realized that, it became the part not only of wisdom but of integrity for him to suggest to Pauley that he withdraw.

Truman could have arisen and said:

"Votes be damned! I am here to do the will of the whole people and not of one

NEW IRON CENTER

Another Pittsburgh is in the making. A vast lode of iron ore has been found in Rhodesia in South Africa, near deposits of coal and limestone. As Rhodesia has also copper, chrome and asbestos, the country's economic future looks bright.

The industrial map of the world in A.D. 2,000 may differ widely from that of 1946. The open-pit Mesaba iron mines of Minnesota are nearing their end. Oil is turning up in new and unexpected places, such as the Mackenzie river valley of the north-western Canada. And the world may yet find it expedient to utilize the coal known to exist in cause the Antarctic continent.

JAP JOURNALISM

Journalism, which languished in Japan until MacArthur let the light in, now seems to be thriving. An item from Tokyo gives the rather surprising information that in five of the abdomen. months from the surrender of Japan, 86 new newspapers have started publication.

Unfortunately the Japanese language is so difficult that a great deal of study is required to master it. But very likely General Mac-Arthur will surmount that obstacle too, in time, by seeing that the natives are provided with a new and much simpler alphabet. If

STALIN POINTS THE WAY

Joseph Stalin was elected a deputy to the Supreme Soviet by a 100 per cent vote. There was no other candidate. There was no opposition. There was not even the possibility of voting against him or his policies. In fact, there was no opposition to any candidate in any part of the country. It is forbidden.

That in Soviet Russia is called democracy. It is a curious concept, because when the government issues a single list of candidates, when oppo-sition is prohibited, how can the people express their opinions? This is not an election; it is an ordered affirmation. The Communists make a point of unity-but every despotism is and always has been based upon involuntary unity. Democracy does not involve unity; it is the free expression of the will of the people on political questions. The rights of the opposition are as fully protected by law as the rights of those in power. The recent elections in Russia were by any defini-tion not a democratic procedure; they were a confirmation of dictatorship and despotism.

Stalin's speech to his constituency represented a reassertion of Bolshevism. Russia won the war, not because Russia was defended by Great Britain and the United States and such allies as Poland and France, as long as they could, not because th United States gave Soviet Russia $10,800,000,000 in Lend Lease, not because of the atomic bomb but only because of Bolshevism.

Stalin said: social system has won, that the Soviet social sys-tem has successfully stood the test in the fire of war and has proved its complete vitality." Not a word about the United Nations, about China's outstanding sacrifices, about the underground in every conquered country. 'One should not forget that the Red Army is that same army which routed completely the Ger-man Army—the terror of all the armies of peace-loving states. . . ." Eisenhower, Moragomery, Patton, MacArthur played no part in this war; their names are not mentioned. Even Roosevelt's name is not mentioned. Only the Red Army won the war. ing is said about the American and Dation of forces that kept hammering away at the Germans; nothing is said about the African campaign, the Helian compaign, the Battle of the Bulge. of these occurred. Only this is noted by Stalin:

"This is understandable after the victories a Moscow and Stalingrad, and of course Kursk and Belgorod, Kiev and Kirovograd, Minsk and Bob-ruisk, Leningrad and Tallin on the Vistula and Niemen, the Danube and the Oder, at Vienna and Berlin. After all this it is impossible not to recognize that the Red Army is a first-class army, which could teach others quite a lot."

So now we know the chivalry and courtesy and truthfulness of our ally, Comrade Stalin, who abolished the Comintern when he needed our aid and gives us not a mention when the joint-enterprise has ended. This is the same Stalin who hid Togliattis Thorez, Dimitrov, and the Communists Guild Wine, like any other fine product of old-world craftsmanship, inspires deep pride in its maker. For Guild Wine is made by the men who grow their own grapes...men who guide Guild from its birth on the vine to its bottling at the cellar as a distinguished wine.

These growers, more than 350 strong, live in their individual vineyards where, with a pride almost father-like, they tend the vines. Their most important tools infinite patience and hard learned skill!

Most grapes are picked for peak price ... Guild grapes are picked for peak flavor!

Guild grapes are left on the vine until that one and only day when they've come to the full and are completely ripe. For a Guild grower's judgment on when to pick is based solely on his desire to make good wine...not on the current market price for grapes!

So always get Guild, the wine that's made by the men who grow their own grapes. You'll serve Guild Wine with a pride matched only by that of the growers who make it.

Why a Shortage of Women's Hosiery

And What YOU Can Do About It

Over half of the women in the United States will not have sufficient stockings during the entire year of 1946. Many will not be able to obtain any. There will only be 54% of the total 1940 hosiery production in 1946.

Why?

DuPonts, sole makers of Nylon yarn, stated recently that only enough yarn to produce 30,000,000 dozen pairs of Nylon stockings will be available for the year

Production in 1945 of women's stockings of all kinds amounted to 43,000,000 dozens, and this quantity fell far short of the demand.

Where Are The Rayon Stockings?

On October 1, 1945, the War Production Board threw out control order M37-D under which rayon yarn was set aside and sold to the manufacturers of women's hosiery. This rayon yarn is now being used for other purposes. The hosiery manufacturers are unable to procure ANY rayon yarn. Consequently, you will get no more rayon stockings. We know you don't like rayon stockings as well as Nylons, but they're certainly far better than nothing.

If You Want Rayon Stockings --

Demobilized War Workers, Small Businessmen!

BIG AIDS for BUILDING SMALL BUSINESS!

Valuable information, training, help from successful business men on how to operate a small business of your own for profit! Provided without cost with New York State's Plan for Small Business Expansion—a plan designed to benefit everyone in the State!

DO you want the independence of being in business for yourself? Are you in business now, wondering how to expand safely? Would you like to learn just where and how you can operate a particular business most profitably? You can get the answers to these and many more questions-at no expense-under New York State's Small Business Expansion Plan.

Where Real Opportunity Lies

Because a prosperous postwar economy in New York State hinges on small business expansion, the State has set up a Plan to help and encourace many of its returning servicemen and demobilized war workers to go into business for themselves-and to enable its small business now in operation to expand along proved lines.

This plan has the enthusiastic approval and Tipport of outstanding business leaders. The plan includes full information on basic operating practices in small business and proper functioning of various departments of a busi-2000, Such as financing, insurance, management. LOST OPPORTUNITY

Most Americans, of all parties, have been rather sympathetic with President Truman. They realized that he came into office under circumstances of the greatest difficulty. They believed he was doing the best he could. They were disposed to give him the benefit of the doubt when he seemed to be going wrong.

But he lost his great chance the other day in the Ickes-Pauley matter. Pauley may be intelligent beyond most mortals, he may be pure as the driven snow. But Americans want their Secretary of the Navy to be above | suspicion. Especially they do not want him connected with large matters involving oil. So it early became plain that no matter how good Pauley might be. Americans in general did not want him running their Navy. When Truman realized that, it became the part not So now we know the chivalry and courtess and So now we know the chivalry and courtess and So now we know the chivalry and courtess and so now we know the chivalry and courtess are not considered the chivalry and courtess are not considered to the chivalry and courtess and courtess are not considered to the chivalry and courtess and courtess are not considered to the chivalry and courtess and courtess are not considered to the chivalry and courtes only of wisdom but of integrity for him to suggest to Pauley that he withdraw,

Truman could have arisen and said: "Votes be damned! I am here to do the will of the whole people and not of one party." Had he done so, he would have earned-and gained—the respect of every American. This was his great opportunity and he let it slip. For a President of the United States is not a boss, but the servant of the people. He must put the nation as a whole before any party.

At least that is what George Washington believed.

Sanford, Fla., Feb. 18 (P)—All was not serene at the Brooklyn bodgers' training camp today as the Brooklyn bodgers' training camp today as Gene Hermanski, promising young outfielder, announced he was a holdout. A scheduled conference with Branch Rickey was postponed when the Dodger president left hurriedly for Daytona Beach. Hermanski batted an even .300 in 18 games in 1943 before leaving for military service.

Another promising freshman, Southpaw Pitcher Joe Hatton, did not even bother to report to camp. It was reported he turned down a salary of $450 a month and wanted a "substantial increase."

Guild Wine, like any other fine product of old-world craftsmanship, inspires deep pride in its maker. For Guild Wine is made by the men who grow their own grapes...men who guide Guild from its birth on the vine to its bottling at the cellar as a distinguished wine.

These growers, more than 350 strong, live in their individual vineyards where, with a pride almost father-like, they tend the vines. Their most important toolsinfinite patience and hard learned skill!

Most grapes are picked for peak price ... Guild grapes are picked for peak flavor!

Guild grapes are left on the vine until that one and only day when they've come to the full and are completely ripe. For a Guild grower's judgment on when to pick is based solely on his desire to make good wine...not on the current market price for grapes!

So always get Guild, the wine that's made by the men who grow their own grapes. You'll serve Guild Wine with a pride matched only by that of the growers who make it.

Belgian Election Result Indicates Leopold's Return

Catholic Party Won on Platform Pledged to Seek Restoration of Monarch

Brussels, Feb. 18 (AP)-Complete returns from eight of Belgium's nine provinces revealed today that the right wing Catholic party, pledged to return King Leopold to his throne, had scored sweeping gains in yesterday's national elections but control of the Chamber of Deputies still was in doubt, tabulation gave the Catho lics 85 of the 202 seats in the chamber—12 seats more than they won in the last national elections in 1939. The Socialist party of Prime Minister Achille Van Acker, who was re-elected to the Chamber, had won 59 seats, the Communists 18 and the Liberals 15. On the basis of these returns political observers predicted that Regent Prince Charles would ask Catholic leader Baron Henri Car
